

I believe satellite radio should be allowed to provide local coverage as well as national. Competition has always been the way we improved services and products in this country. I happen to listen to both local programming and satellite, for the variety offered. I prefer to have a choice, rather than being limited by some corporation's or special interest group's self-interest